ZP CEO chides officials for poor assessment of crop loss

Zilla Panchayat CEO K. Jyothi addressing the KDP progress review meeting at ZP Hall in city this morning. Others seen are ZP President Nayeema Sulthana, ZP Vice-President Nataraj and ZP Agriculture Standing Committee Chairman Venkataswamy. Picture right shows a section of officials and ZP members.

Mysuru, Nov.20 (MTY&SR)- Even as thousands of farmers from across the State are demanding adequate compensation for crop loss, Mysuru Zilla Panchayat (ZP) Chief Executive Officer (CEO) K. Jyothi today took the District-level officials to task for tardy progress in the assessment of crop damages caused by drought and rain fury.

She was responding to a series of allegations by ZP members at the Quarterly Karnataka Development Programme [(KDP) including 20-point programme] progress review meeting held at ZP Hall in city. The meeting was chaired by ZP President Nayeema Sulthana.

As soon as the meeting began, ZP Agriculture and Industries Standing Committee Chairman Venkataswamy levelled serious allegations against the Agri Department officials for not visiting the fields to assess crop damages in H.D. Kote taluk. He argued that hundreds of hectares of standing paddy and other khariff crops were destroyed in both rain-fed and irrigated land in his taluk during this season, but the officials failed to visit the spot to assess the damage and submit a report to the government as it is a must to obtain compensation.

He also alleged that farmers of K.R. Nagar and other taluks in the district too suffered huge crop loss. Paddy growers of K.R. Nagar taluk suffered loss from 'Benki Roga' in more than 5,700 hectares of land, he said.

Replying to the allegations, Joint Director of Agriculture Mahantheshappa said his Department officials visited the spot and assessed the damage besides taking measures to arrest the spread of "Benki Roga" to paddy crop. Even scientists from various Agri Universities visited the paddy fields to study the disease, he said. The District had suffered crop loss to the tune of Rs. 6.75 crore, he said and added that a report in this regard was submitted to the government.

The ZP members also alleged delay in installation of bio-metric system, lack of transparency and supply of sub-substandard food to inmates of Social Welfare Department-run Hostels.

To this, District Social Welfare Officer Bindya pointed out that the Department has taken all measures for installation of biometric units at all the hostels and assured to look into other complaints too.

When ZP Vice-President Nataraj complained about scarcity of doctors and other medical staff at Mugur and Talakad Community Health Centres in T. Narasipur, Taluk Health Officer Dr. Prasad said that District Health and Family Welfare Department had taken all measures to fill vacant posts by outsourcing and on contract basis.

On the complaints of water-logging around the Public Health Centre at Madapura village in T. Narasipur taluk, the ZP CEO took the engineer concerned to task for constructing a Health Centre at such a spot and asked him to fix the problem immediately.

School drop-outs

The ZP CEO instructed the Education Department officials to complete the ongoing door-to-door survey of school drop-outs besides finding the exact causes for the same.

Elderly farmer couple, Copra trader commit suicide

Mandya, Nov.20 (Nagaiah& DM)- In a heart-rending incident, a debt-ridden elderly farmer couple committed suicide by consuming poison near their farmland at Bommanahalli in K.R. Pet taluk of the district late last night. The deceased have been identified as Boralingegowda (62) and Lakshmamma (54).

Boralingegowda is said to have borrowed loans from banks and private money-lenders and had failed to repay them due to crop loss and crash in crop prices.

The incident came to light when villagers noticed the bodies in the field this morning. K.R. Pet Circle Police Inspector H.B. Venkateshaiah and other Police personnel visited the spot. The K.R. Pet Rural Police have registered a case in this regard.

Security-Safety Scene

Inter-country and also intra-country unrest seem to be going out of hands threatening national security and citizens' safety in ways and on a scale like never before in human history. Human kind has progressed in a negative sense, at a slow rate for many centuries and rapidly in modern times, given the use of clubs, spears, swords, arrows and crude canons in wars yielding place to use of guns, explosives, missiles and remote-controlled weaponry in wars, ostensibly to decimate rivals in the world of economic competition. The recent episode of mutual challenges posed by the United States of America and North Korea, pushing both to the brink of war, maybe, a third world war, to witness mass scale fatalities of people at large. The columns of the various dailies in different languages are replete with reports featuring wars of words among the land's political class, different sections of society on a multitude of counts in a long list including clamour for superiority of respective faith, caste, language and so on.

Ideally, the nation has no concern of its security if not even one out of the 1.35 billion mass has reason to feel unsafe both within the four walls of homes and in the open. Accordingly, a broad definition of security of a country draws its essence as the well-being of all its citizens.

Narratives in the pages of the land's history, particularly highlight the disharmony among the kings and chieftains giving an open invitation to Mughals first and the British later for taking control of what was described as the Indian sub-continent. If the Mughals used their superior might to vanquish the rulers of their territories, the British are known to have successfully applied the divide 'n' rule policy to keep the masses at their command.

The lessons of the land's history spanning four centuries of rule by aliens doesn't seem to have aroused both the ruling class and the land's people at large to safeguard themselves from a repeat of the past. Stakeholders of the nation's integrity as well as their own safety, namely the people seem to be undoing the contribution of the stockholders of the country's security, namely the armed forces and the Police force.

The factor of discord between the successive governments and the people comprising a multitude of outfits pursuing all sorts of causes by staging violent protests across the land all through the year with cohesion as a casualty is bound to worsen the security-safety scene of the nation in days ahead.

Most phones here are waterproof

Tokyo: Nearly 90 to 95 percent of smartphones in Japan are waterproof, because people use them while they are showering.

Japanese users are apparently so attached to their phones that they even bring them into the shower. Manufacturers were aware of this unusual habit early on and realized that in order to succeed in japan, they had to make their devices water resistant.

The world's first waterproof mobile phone, the Casio Canu 502S, was release in 2005, and was soon followed by a series of Fujitsu waterproof handhelds. Before long, every company looking to enter Japanese market had to make their devices waterproof.

"In Japan, you can't sell a phone if it's not waterproof. About 90 to 95 percent of phones sold now are already waterproof," Panasonic executive Taro Itakura said . "Why? This is very unique — young Japanese women prefer to use their cellphones even when taking their showers."

Proposed Disneyland at KRS: An architect's views

Sir,

As an architect and an ardent Mysurean, I am appalled at the proposal to set up a Disneyland-like Amusement Park at Brindavan Gardens in KRS, including a 350 ft. tall statue of Mother Cauvery and a Museum Complex.

Brindavan Gardens, today, is a part of Mysore folklore from films to fiction to fun-filled evenings. The image of Brindavan Gardens to all of us, especially me at 65 years of age, is a beautifully laid out serene gardens with the tinkling sound of water and a prayer to G.H. Krumbiegel, who created this marvel.

World over cities are trying to preserve such heritage spaces and we are determined at a great expense to ruin it.

My proposal is that, create a day-long tourist package starting with Ranganathittu, Srirangapatna and culminating at Brindavan Gardens in the evening. This will add to the wonderful tourism packages already existing in and around Mysuru.

However, if the government is still adamant about Karnataka Disneyland, let them utilise the land proposed for the Film City Project at Himmavu near Nanjangud as the project has now been abandoned. I am confident that the government will be able to find more land in this area to create this Amusement Park.

I am sure that people will agree with me that the evening prayers to Goddess Cauvery at Brindavan Gardens today, makes you feel blessed and happy that we took time off from our busy schedule to visit this wonderful Garden.

I pray that the authorities concerned talk to the people of Mysuru and Mandya before going ahead with such a major project.

Revival of KRS

Sir,

Our PM Modi's Mysuru visit had a promise to convert Mysuru into Paris but now the State Government wants Disneyland (housed in Paris) style amusement park to come to Mysuru. So a bit of Paris in Mysuru. A perfect harmony between the Centre and the State.

The efforts of Tourism Minister and the State Government must be lauded as this is a progressive plan; timely and well-executed project will bring in more and more tourists to our city.

At present, KRS Dam and Brindavan Gardens are lagging behind in keeping pace with other global tourist destinations. A revived KRS Park will definitely attract people from different parts of the country as well as from abroad and also increase their stay in Mysuru benefiting the people of our city.

Centre sanctions Rs. 546 Crore for flood relief in Karnataka

Bengaluru, Nov.20- The Union Government on Monday approved Rs.546.21 crore for flood relief in Karnataka.

The funds were approved following report of an inter-Ministerial team that visited areas affected in Karnataka, including Kodagu district — the Country's largest coffee-growing region — which was hugely affected by floods and landslips in August.

The relief was announced after a high-level Committee meeting, in which Home Minister Rajnath Singh and Finance Minister Arun Jaitley took part.

Earlier, the State Government had estimated losses to the tune of Rs.1,199 crore due to torrential downpour this monsoon season, especially in August.

However, as per the National Disaster Relief Fund and the State Disaster Relief Fund guidelines, the losses were estimated at Rs.722 crore.

Apart from the widespread devastation in Kodagu, losses were also reported in eight other districts including Dakshina Kannada, Chikmagalur, Hassan and Mysuru.

The monsoon season in the State was a period of contrast in terms of rainfall, with the Government declaring 100 taluks as drought-hit.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha, reacting to the Centre's sanction for flood relief, said that the Union Government, after taking note of the devastation caused by floods and landslips in Kodagu, sent an inter-Ministerial team to assess the losses.

Following the team's report, the Centre has sanctioned flood relief fund, he said and added that he would thank Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Home Minister Rajnath Singh, Finance Minister Arun Jaitley and Agriculture Minister Radha Mohan Singh for the same.

Seek dismissal of LDF Government in Kerala for hurting sentiments of Hindus

Mysuru, Nov.20 (RKB&SR)- Hundreds of BJP, VHP, Sangha Parivar activists, under the banner of Sabarimala Kshetra Samrakshana Kriya Samithi, staged a protest near Gandhi Square in city this morning, demanding the Union Government to dismiss Pinarayi Vijayan-led Left Democratic Front (LDF) Government in Kerala for hurting the sentiments of Hindus. The protesters condemned the Left Government's move to implement the Supreme Court order permitting women of all age groups into the Hill shrine breaking the age-old tradition of Sabarimala Temple.

They accused that Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan armed with the verdict, was trying to persuade its women cadres to visit the shrine to break its centuries' old customs. The LDF Government was also trying to destroy Sabarimala Temple, by falsely propagating that it has turned into a centre of conflict.

They sought immediate intervention of the Union Government to restore the uniqueness of the Temple and threatened to intensify their agitation across the country if their demands are not met.

City BJP President Dr. B.H. Manjunath, RSS District Pramukh Rajesh, VHP District Secretary Pradeesh Kumar, Latha of 'Matrushakti', 'Durgavahini' Pramukh Kumari, Corporator Satish, Divisional BJP Coordinator Phaneesh led the protest.

Narayanagowda said that the plan of Disneyland-like amusement at Brindavan Gardens which would come up at a cost of Rs.1,200 crore would be beneficial for farmers and for the entire State as the decision is taken in the interest of the people in Mysuru and Mandya district.

He said that the project to be taken up at KRS was essential and would become popular like the Eiffel Tower and Disneyland and added that Mysuru and Mandya districts would be a haven for tourists.

Continuing, Narayanagowda said that Mysuru Tourism was being projected by the projects and schemes made by the erstwhile rulers till now and for the first time the State Government has come up with such a project to encourage tourism.

He said that the project would directly or indirectly create jobs to thousands of people besides providing business opportunities for hotel industry, fine arts and crafts and travel industry and added that the State Government was getting a revenue of Rs.6 crore annually which would go up to Rs.30 crore annually once the project is completed besides increasing the revenue of tourist spots in and around Mysuru.

With other States like Kerala, Gujarat, Tamil Nadu and Andhra Pradesh taking up various projects, Karnataka, in this competitive era, should not be left behind and this project would help the State in attracting tourists from across the globe, Narayanagowda said and added that the KRS was built about 100 years ago and has not been developed in a big way since then. With the Disneyland-like amusement park project, KRS and Brindavan Gardens would also be developed.

Hotel Owners' Association Charitable Trust President Ravishastri, Vice-President Suresh Ugraiah, Secretary Subramanya R. Tanthri and Hotel Owners' Association Treasurer K. Bhaskar Shetty were present.

Grave new world of Xi, Trump

Point of VIEW

T.J.S. George

The avatars of Donald Trump and Xi Jinping aim at making China the leader of the world. They have almost reached their targets. Under Trumpavatar, the policy of America First has led to US withdrawal from global engagements, be it NATO or the Trans-Pacific Partnership, leaving the field open to an assertive China. For its part, Xiavatar has been pushing the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank and the Belt and Road Initiative across continents while concentrating at home on military modernisation and advanced cyber technology. China's advances on the frontiers of science have been astonishing — or frightening, depending on the angle of vision.

To put this in perspective, recall the fact that Mao Zedong proclaimed the birth of the People's Republic of China in 1949, two years after India became independent. Mao's Cultural Revolution, etc., took China backward for nearly three decades. Its forward march began only in 1978 with Deng Xiaoping's reforms. That is, after India had gone through the Prime Ministerships of Jawaharlal Nehru, Lal Bahadur Shastri and Indira Gandhi, and the Emergency backlash had put Morarji Desai in the Prime Ministerial chair. Such a late start, and where is China today? Such an early start, and where is India now?

China has reached the point where it is challenging the US for world leadership. Its official military budget for 2017 was $ 190 billion (US, $590 billion, India, $50 billion). Its focus is on science and technology in military research. A Scientific Research Steering Committee was set up last year in addition to the Academy of Military Science, the National Defence University and the National University of Defence Technology. R&D resources put emphasis on nuclear fusion, hypersonic technology and multipurpose satellites. The US Defence Secretary's office began its annual report on China in August with the sentence: "China has the political will and fiscal strength to sustain a steady increase in defence spending, supporting the continued modernisation of the People's Liberation Army and the exploration of new technologies with defence applications."

China ignores conventional ethics in its determination to be the leader of the world. For years now, hundreds of Chinese have been going to American Universities for higher studies. Most of them return to China to let the motherland benefit from their freshly acquired expertise in various subjects. There have also been reports of Chinese specialists "stealing" industrial secrets from American companies. According to the Australian Strategic Policy Institute, some 2500 military scientists, researchers and engineers were sent in the last decade to Western Universities to conduct research, sometimes in areas like navigation technology, quantum physics and cryptography.

It is known that China has been investing heavily in AI (Artificial Intelligence) with plans to become the world leader in that sector by 2025. It has openly said that AI is a "strategic technology." It also puts emphasis on indigenous manufacture. Already, it is turning out armed drones and a string of ultramodern weapons. An aircraft carrier has been commissioned. China has become the world's third largest exporter of arms, after the US and Russia. Until now, America was developing its military prowess to meet the Russian challenge. Now, the benchmark is the Chinese challenge.

Xi Jinping

China thinks long-term. More importantly, China thinks culturally and historically. For the US and Russia, for example, military planning is related to political and strategic oneupmanship. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. For China it has to be sufficient unto eternity. Communism or no communism, the historical memory of China's imperial overlordship with neighbouring States maintaining tributary relationship with it, is alive. Imperial China considered itself the centre of the world. Times may have changed, but the notion of a superior destiny gives China an inner power other nations lack.

This is the context in which the extraordinary powers Xi Jinping acquired through constitutional changes must be judged. The 19th party congress last year gave him powers that only Mao had before. Significantly, it was the same party Congress that proclaimed something no party Congress had done before — that it was right for China to return to the days when China was the world's leading power in trade. This, from the Chinese viewpoint, is precisely what Xi Jinping is doing with determination. His assertion that the whole of South China Sea is China's backwaters bears the stamp of his power and of his readiness to take on the world. The task will be easier with the help he is receiving from the mixed-up, confused Donald Trump. Say hello to the Grave New World.

Second Edition of Mysuru Literature Festival

Netas do not wear real Khadi,

says Fashion Guru Prasad Bidapa

Mysuru, Nov.20 (NNN)-The Second Edition of the Mysuru Literature Festival drew to a close on Sunday with nearly 40 authors and experts in various fields sitting in discussion in two parallel sessions at two venues — Thangaali, the outdoor one with two beautiful rain trees as backdrop, where seven panel discussions were held and the indoor Angana where six panel discussions took place. It was organised by Mysuru Literary Forum Charitable Trust and Mysuru Book Clubs 2015.

After the inaugural session with the keynote address by former RBI Governor Dr. Y.V. Reddy, the panel discussions immediately began with Rta Kapur Chisthi, author-researcher-design developer and Fashion Guru Prasad Bidapa clad in an authentic flowing white khadi kurta and panche, holding forth on "Why we should wear the fabric of freedom?" a topic to mark the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

Chishti called for sustained effort to promote khadi and other handloom products and said that one should plan for the next 50 years so that it will result in an action plan to benefit the weavers.

Bidapa said that this can happen only when there is a direct contact between the weavers and buyers to promote khadi across the globe. He pointed out that with his own experience such a practice in Rajasthan has helped the weavers to increase their market.

He also curtly remarked that khadi-looks that the politicians wear are not made of real khadi and said, "Even the khadi dress worn by Prime Minister Narendra Modi is synthetic very often."

Bidapa, who is a stylist and has presented many shows highlighting the differences between synthetic and authentic khadi, said that while the former is poisonous to mother earth, the latter is biodegradable.

Rta Kapur Chishti, who has penned a book 'Saris of India' presented a fashion show with the models in Khadi dresses, which drew the appreciation of the audience.

Tribal girl Shilpa Raj steals the show

Even as this session was going on in Thangaali, an equally interesting parallel session "Reminiscing behind closed doors" with authors Rinki Roy Bhattacharya, daughter of acclaimed film-maker Bimal Roy, our own city's Maithili Rao, who has penned a book on actress Smita Patil titled 'A Brief Incandescence' and the youngest author in the festival Shilpa Raj, who has written a personal account of her life called "Elephant Chaser's Daughter" enlivened the proceedings with Prof. Chandan Gowda of Azim Premji University moderating.

While Rinki Roy spoke about the making of the film Madhumati by her father on which she has written and the efforts that has gone into making the film, Maithili Rao spoke about Smita Patil and how in her brief life she made a world of difference to Indian cinema.

Shilpa Raj, whose story about how she came from a poor tribal family would have lost her life for female infanticide and how she was picked up by an NGO where she was educated and now is doing her M.Phil in Amity University, Noida, had the audience in tears even as she narrated her experience in impeccable English.

'The Remembered Village' still relevant

This session in Kannada not only brought back memories of Mysuru's own renowned Sociologist M.N. Srinivas whose seminal work "The Remembered Village" is still relevant but the most fascinating part of the session was the memories that Chikka Javarappa, the 81-year-old, brought alive that was the real story.

Srinivas meets the then 11-year-old Javarappa, while the latter was doing the rounds of Kodagalli village near Mysuru in 1948. The young boy is depicted in this ethnographic study and the interesting part is when Javarappa asks Srinivas to talk to a woman who was popular in the village because she uses abusive language.

When Srinivas asked Javarappa what made the woman angry he told him that if somebody stole her hen then she would get very angry and abusive. "Srinivas was keen in learning the abusive language," recalled Javarappa, which had the audience in splits. The other two panellists who participated in the discussion were T.R. Shama Bhat, a Canadian Sociologist who had worked with some other scholars, knew about the book and decided to translate it into Kannada titled "Nenapina Halli."

He shared his experience of writing the book. Padma Shriram, a scholar, and related to Javarappa also interacted. Sociologist Prof. Panini, nephew of M.N. Srinivas also took part. The moderator in this session was All India Radio's (AIR) Abdul Rashid who skilfully drew out the best from the panellists. The parallel session in Thangaali was titled "Figments of Imagination and Bold Canvases" where the panellists included Prof. Chandan Gowda, Dr. Mini Krishnan, Guru Prasad and Aroon Raman.

Script writing

The session on script writing in films and television titled "Making my Art my own," even as the parallel session "Janapada Sahityadalli Hasya" with Alaka Kattemane in conversation with Prof. Krishne Gowda was going on at Thangaali.

Coming back to script writing in films and television it was a very seasoned panel with two script writers both from Mumbai — the veteran Mir Muneer who writes scripts for televisions and the young and charming Mayur Puri who has written scripts for the likes of Shah Rukh Khan-acted films — who shared their experiences. With them was another veteran film journalist and author Maithili Rao moderating the show, which was a big takeaway of the festival.

Talking about Om Shanti Om... a film for which he had to write the script, Mayur said he was a rationalist and with a scientific bent of mind and when the story about reincarnation was given, there was no way he could write it. But he said, "I don't have to write with my belief, I am paid to write and hence while writing I have to shut my other side out, believe in punarjanam and write."

Maithili pointed out how the credit was not given to the makers of Madhumati an old film on reincarnation to which he replied that credit was indeed given. Then Mir Muneer revealed how the producers were only concerned about TRP ratings and how they had to stretch their serials because there was so much money involved even though they did not know anything about stories or scripts.

Mayur talking about the standard of Indian TV serials and the 'Seasons' that popular ones like 'Friends' are made season after season, he asked whether people really knew how much the actors in the popular American TV serial 'Friends' were paid and when he mentioned that it was 6 million dollars per episode, the audience gasped in collective sigh. However, he defended the Indian television and cinema as he said, "We create content with emotions like the Spanish."

Then Maithili Rao asked whether it was Salim-Javed the script writers who have written the blockbuster Sholay, the pioneers whose names appeared in credit titles of the films, Muneer pointed out that in Mughal-e-Azam there were four script writers who had all got their due. But the credit went to Salim-Javed because they gave 14 blockbuster films, said Mayur. The other successful script writer they said was Khader Khan.

Mayur said, "I am very happy that even script writers are at last getting their due and being called to attend literary festivals."

Public Square at old private bus stand in Madikeri

Madikeri, Nov.20 (PS&KS)- Kodagu District Minister S.R. Mahesh, who is also the Tourism Minister, after taking note of suggestions made by Star of Mysore Editor-in-Chief K.B. Ganapathy in his column 'Choomantra,' published in Mysooru Mithra, sister concern of SOM on Nov.1, held talks with Deputy Commissioner P.I. Sreevidya, City Municipal Council President Kaveramma Somanna and former City Municipal Council President Nandakumar recently.

The Minister has given the responsibility of preparing a blue print to construct a 'heritage spot' to the local administration.

In his article, K.B. Ganapathy had also mentioned about Trafalgar Square at the centre of London city and had mooted the idea of a Public Square at the old private bus stand space in honour of India's first and one and the only Commander-in-Chief Field Marshal K.M. Cariappa who is from Kodagu.

Former City Municipal Council President and present Member Nandakumar, the Editor of the local Kannada newspaper Shakthi, Chidvilas and others, have shown interest in the construction of a 'Public Square' and have approached architects and vastu experts in Bengaluru and Kerala. The architects and vastu experts are likely to give their report in two days and based on the report and the blue print, a project to construct a 'heritage public spot' would be taken up. At present, there are plans to construct a fountain and a gallery also at the vacated old bus stand.

Meanwhile, Nandakumar, speaking to SOM, said that there is a need to construct a 'Public Square' in the lines of those in foreign countries. It is also decided to undertake a study tour to other countries if necessary, he added. Nandakumar said that the project will be taken up after taking suggestions from various organisations.

He further said that there were plans to construct buildings on either side of the 'Public Square' for which experts are being consulted and added that even Minister S.R. Mahesh, DC P.I. Sreevidya, City Municipal Council President Kaveramma Somanna have shown the same interest. A Google survey was conducted through a private firm and every inch of the said place has been documented through Google, Nandakumar said.

Construction of retaining wall

The first priority is being given for the construction of retaining wall around the place for which the District Administration would release a fund of Rs.2 crore. The retaining wall will be constructed to go well with the 'Public Square.' As the 'Public Square' is being constructed as a tourist spot, more grants or funds are being expected from the Tourism Department.

Wonderful suggestions

Chidvilas said, "after reading the article of K.B. Ganapathy published on Nov.1 in Mysooru Mithra, I sent a message of appreciation to his phone and tried to call him (Ganapathy) on his phone but his phone was not reachable."

He said that he later called Mysooru Mithra office and learnt that Ganapathy had gone to Japan. He further said that he immediately met the DC and showed her the article of Ganapathy and highlighted the suggestions Ganapathy had made to which the DC responded positively.

Continuing, Chidvilas said that he called Nandakumar, Clean Coorg Convenor Sathya and Kaveramma Somanna, later inspected the spot and gave his suggestions to them. He further said that he has given suggestions to construct the retaining wall to give it a heritage look which could be used for Laser Shows during night and also install iron grill on top of the retaining wall. He has doubted that the Department of Archaeology would give permission to construct a commercial complex at the vacant old private bus stand as no multi-storied buildings can come up within 100 mts from the fort.

Theatre should be bereft of ideology: Dr. Bhyrappa

Mysuru, Nov.20 (PM&NNN)- "Any theatre should be bereft of ideology as it relates to the problems of the time and the situation at that moment which could become outdated at a later date," said Littérateur and Saraswathi Samman awardee Dr. S.L. Bhyrappa.

He was delivering the presidential address after the release of the book 'Samastha Nataka' authored by poet H.S. Venkateshamurthy at Sarada Vilas Centenary Hall in Krishnamurthypuram here this morning, organised by Talukina Venkannaiah Smaraka Granthamale, Mysuru and Kadamba Ranga Vedike, and said, because if the plays are based on ideology it explores the possibilities of problem solving of issues related to economic condition, good rain and crops and all these are nothing but an illusion.

Instead, the play should reflect only emotions and rasanubhava whereas today's ideology is of superficial value and once it becomes outdated it has no significance, he said.

Dr. Bhyrappa said that he had accepted the invitation only because of the respect he had for Venkateshamurthy and hence even though he had no time to read the book, he just had skimmed through it.

Recalling the time when he was in Delhi on a research assignment, he said that he had gone to meet theatre Director B.V. Karanth with his play 'Grahana.' After seeing it, Karanth had suggested him that the script needed to be improved and the only way he could do it was to watch them practice a play which was being held there.

However, he found to his dismay that the practice began only around 8.30 pm and ended around 12 midnight. He found it very difficult to find autorickshaws at that hour and as always they demanded double the fare. Hence, he stopped going to the practice sessions.

Then he remembered his English teacher in Yuvaraja's College, Krishna Iyengar, who always criticised Shakespeare and felt that Bernard Shaw was an excellent dramatist. However, Dr. Bhyrappa said that years later, he discovered that Shaw was a greater dramatist for his English teacher simply because he had used technology in his plays whereas during the period of Shakespeare there was hardly any technology.

No one could beat Shakespeare in his thoughts because the great playwright brought all human emotions into play in his many dramas which no other person could emulate and hence according to him (Dr. Bhyrappa) Shakespeare was the greatest playwright.

Dr. Bhyrappa also pointed out how T.P. Kailasam's play based on ideology as he talked about many issues like dowry had not eradicated the evil to this day.

Earlier, film artiste K. Suchendra Prasad released book 'Samastha Nataka and also spoke.

The others present included well-known poet B.R. Lakshman Rao, critic Dr. Narahalli Balasubramanya and poet Dundiraj. Alok rendered the invocation. Publisher T.S. Chayapathy Kadamba Ranga Vedike President Rajashekar Kadamba and Star of Mysore Editor-in-Chief K.B. Ganapathy were also present.

Later reacting to a question from the media, Dr. Bhyrappa reiterated that Prime Minister Narendra Modi should be given another three terms to rule. To another question on Disneyland in KRS, he cryptically said that it was not possible to make it work.

Green Buds Agents, Depositors hold meeting

Mysuru, Nov.20 (PM&DM)- With the Mysuru Assistant Commissioner (AC) asking the aggrieved investors and depositors of the city-based Green Buds Agro Farms (P) Ltd., to present all the documents that they have at the AC's Office for submission at the Court before Dec. 27, the agents and depositors of the defaulting investment firm held a meeting at the Park opposite the Deputy Commissioner's Office here this morning to discuss proper ways of presenting the documents.

Hundreds of investors and agents from Ballari, Koppal, Shivamogga, Kodagu, Mysuru and other districts of the State attended the meeting called by Green Buds Agro Farms Agents and Investors Rakshana Samithi.

Addressing the gathering, Samithi President Lakshmidevi said that lakhs of people from across the State had invested their hard earned money in Green Buds with a hope of getting high returns. But the company, which opened 72 branches across the State, had duped the gullible investors to the tune of crores of rupees since 2013, by not returning the deposits even after maturity date.

This had caused a lot of heartburn among the investors and the government, following a series of protests, ordered a CID probe into the issue.

Now, the Court has directed the government to attach all properties and assets of the defaulting firm and repay the money to depositors, she said adding that the Court's order had brought some relief to the depositors who are eagerly awaiting to get back their money.

Samithi office-bearers G.P. Manjunath, A. Nagaraj and others attended the meeting.

AC asks Green Buds investors to submit documents by Dec.27

HDK urged to protect interests of dalits, sugarcane growers

Students, Research Scholars stage protest at Gangothri Campus

Mysuru, Nov.20 (RKB&SR)- Members of Dalit Students Federation, Research Association, Pragathipara Chintakara Sangha and Bahujan Vidyarthi Sangha staged a protest near the Centenary Clock Tower in Manasagangothri campus here this morning, condemning the anti-people and anti-Dalit policies of the State Government.

They shouted slogans against Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy for not protecting the interest of the marginalised communities, farmers and sugarcane growers across the State.

They alleged that the recent State Government's direction to the Karnataka Public Service Commission (KPSC) against selecting candidates from SC, ST and OBCs under the General Merit category during the recruitment for Gazetted Probationers posts of 2015 would deprive the employment opportunities of downtrodden communities.

They contended that the coalition Government's direction issued on Nov. 3 to the Secretary of KPSC amounts to depriving an opportunity to candidates of weaker sections for selection under General Merit category.

Appreciating the State Government for withdrawing this order yesterday, they wanted the State Government to stop issuing such controversial directions without discussing in the Assembly and with experts.

They also wanted the Government to protect the interest of SC/ST employees on their promotion and reservation and condemned Chief Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy for his outburst on women sugarcane growers.

The Chief Minister must direct Sugar Mill owners to release the dues and arrears to sugarcane growers besides ensuring minimum support prices for farm products.

Dalit Student Federation's leaders P. Mahadevaswamy, Mahesh Sosale, Gopal Vasanthkumar and others were present during the protest.

All India Radio Sangeet Sammelan Concerts

All India Radio (AIR) has played a stellar role in nourishing India's heritage and culture. Started way back in the year 1954, Akashvani Sangeet Sammelan has evolved as a strong brand name for AIR in the mind space of connoisseurs for over six decades. As part of this, AIR, Mysuru, had organised twin Karnatak classical music concerts at Mysore Vasudevacharya Bhavana on Oct.7.

The first was a Veena-Violin-Venu trio presented by B. Shivakumar on veena, N.C. Madhav on violin and Prapancham Mukhyaprana on flute. They were accompanied by Tyagarajan on mridanga, Vyasa Vitthala on kanjira, Ilasival Susheel Kumar on ghata and V.S. Ramesh on morching.

The trio began the concert with Sri Jayachamarajendra Wadiya's 'Sri Maha Ganapatim Bhajeham' in Athana set to Adi Tala. Lively swaras to the pallavi were short and crisp. Sri Shyama Shastri's 'Mayamma' in Ahiri was a neat presentation. The sub-main item of the concert was Purvi Kalyani, the ragalapana of which was taken by each of them stage by stage. The technicality of each instrument together with melody was impressive. The composition was a rare one — 'Ananda natanamaduvar' by Neelakantha Sivan. Swaras to the pallavi of the composition were good, the last of which was co-ordinated by all.

Todi, the highlight of the evening, was elaborated first on the veena, then on the flute and then on the violin stage by stage. Tyagaraja's 'Kaddanu Variki' in Adi Vilamba was chosen well. The charana saw swaras at 'Needura nirakarinche Mudduga tambura.' The tani was elaborate and lively with four percussion instruments. The trio closed the concert with Purandara Dasa's Devaranama — 'Rama mantrava japiso he manuja' in jonpuri.

The second concert of the evening was by Vasudha Keshav from Mysuru. Now settled in Chennai, Vasudha has established herself as a seasoned artiste. She was accompanied by Poorna Vaidyanathan on violin, B.C. Manjunath on mridanga, Tiruppur Sridhar Kumar on kanjira and Mahati on tambura in the present concert.

Vasudha's concert was scheduled for one hour. Starting with a varna in Saranga, she sang Ramapriya, the alapana of which was short, leading onto 'Smaramyaham' by Deekshitar and the neraval developed suitably for 'surasuram rogaharam sarpadi Bheetiharam' followed by good swaras. Bhairavi was elaborated bringing 'Sari Evvaramma' Shyama Shastri) in which the charana was missing.

The vocalists would do well to go through the text of the composition before rendering it in a concert. Although Vasudha displayed the raga with a few delightful sancharas, the immensity of the item coupled with the forceful strain in rendering failed to produce a soothing effect. Poorna on violin and B.C. Manjunath on mridanga were supportive. Vasudha concluded her concert with a Lalgudi tillana in Sindhu Bhairavi.

AIR Sangeet Sammelan concerts can still be a blessing to the audience if the artistes took music and the concerts more seriously. It can be remembered that when Savita Devi , the renowned vocalist ended her performance at Vadodara in the late hours of the night of the Sammelan, the audience simply refused to get up, even after being repeatedly told that the evening had ended. The artiste had no option but to continue singing for another hour until the crowd was satisfied. It is time, artistes took these concerts more seriously. Today music has been digitised and commodified but it must be remembered that good content still remains the king.

A tribute to the great composer: Muthuswami Dikshitar

Muthuswami Dikshitar

Muthuswami Dikshitar is one of the musical trinity of Karnatak Music. He was a saint, poet, composer and musician of Bhakti tradition. As a vaaggeyakara, he has penned vast number of kritis, which are widely sung in music concerts. His kritis on various Hindu Gods describe them in detail with the richness of Sanskrit language and the essence of musical mastery and brilliance of a divine poet.

His compositions are known for capturing the aesthetics of the respective ragas. Most of the kritis are composed in a slower speed giving thrust to the imaginations in the lyrics and are considered as challenge to musicians to render. Dikshitar left for divine abode on Deepavali Amavasya in the year 1835.

Sri Tyagaraja Sangeetha Sabha Charitable Trust, Mysuru, celebrated Dikshitar Day for the second year. They had organised the programme on 7th of this month at Sri Vidyabharathi Prarthana Mandira, Sri Chandramoulishwara Temple premises, Vani Vilas Mohalla.

Senior musicians of the city offered their respect to the great personality by rendering his kritis on this occasion, which was followed by the Goshti Gayana.

The significance of this year's celebration was singing a few 'Navavarana' kritis of Dikshitar, through 'Goshti Gayana.' These are the kritis in praise of Goddess Kamalamba, enshrined in Tiruvaruru of Tanjavur district. She is referred to as the supreme consciousness or the Divine Mother of the universe. These elaborate kritis are treated as valuable treasures of Karnatak music for their masterly composition, splendid capturing of the moods of the different ragas used therein. The lyrics refer to the nine layers of Sri Chakra Puja, a tantric mode of Devi worship.

Senior musicians of the city, Vidwans T.P. Vaidyanathan, Dr. N.R. Parashuram, N.R. Prashanth, N. Shrinath & Manasa Nayana and Vidushis Dr. Sukanya Prabhakar, Dr. R.N. Shrilatha, G.S. Rajalakshmi, Koviladi Kala, Neeraja Achyutha Rao and others participated in the Goshti Gayana.

The Goshti Gayana began with the kriti "Sri Mahaganapatim" (Gowla, Trisra Triputa). Further, the musicians rendered 'Balasubrahmanyam bhajeham' (Suruti, Adi), 'Budhamashrayami' (Vara Kruti-Natakuranji, Mishra Jhampe), 'Kamalambam bhajare' (Kalyani, Adi), Kamalamba Samrakshathu (Ananda Bhairavi, Misra Chapu) and 'Shree Kamalambike' (Sri, Khanda Eka).

Vid H.K. Narasimhamurthy, Vid. H.N. Bhaskar, Vidu. Dr. M.A. Jyothi, Vid. Chethan, Vid. M.S. Tyagarajan and Prthvi Bhaskar accompanied on violin, while mridanga support was provided by Vid. G.S. Ramanujam, Vid. Saishivu Lakshmi Keshav, Vid. Mysore L. Vadiraj and Vid. A. Radhesh. Many music lovers participated in the programme, which was a befitting tribute to the great composer.

'Thottilamadu Jathre' at Melukote attracts thousands of devotees

Melukote, Nov.20 (US) - Thousands of devotees took part in 'Thottilamadu Jathre Mahotsava' at Sri Cheluvanarayana Swamy Temple here on Sunday.

'Ashta Theerthotsava,' popularly known as 'Thottilamadu Jathre,' is usually organised during 'Kartika Maasa' as part of the 'Rajamudi Brahmotsava' and is said to evoke divine blessings on married couples to beget a child who otherwise would have been socially cornered in society labelling them barren.

Accordingly, hundreds of couples yearning to have children walked about 26 km through hillocks carrying the 'Padhuke of the Lord' and had a dip in all the eight 'Theerthas' or water bodies clearing their vow.

The Temple opened at 6 am and daily routine puja rituals were performed by 9 am yesterday to launch the 'Ashta Theerthotsava.'

Later the idol of the deity was adorned with the diamond studded 'Rajamudi' crown donated by Mysore Maharaja Raja Wadiyar and taken in a procession up to the 'Kalyani.'

The 'Padhuke of the Lord' was taken to all the eight lakes and 'Abhisheka' was performed. Temple Executive Officer Nanjegowda and others were present.

Bee Attack: During the 'Ashta Theerthotsava,' a fire possibly set off by a few miscreants disturbed a beehive sending a swarm of bees, which stung a few people belonging to the Temple and surprisingly sparing the hundreds of devotees participating in the ritual, which was deemed as a miracle of God.

Unclean Surroundings: Only the road to the 'Kalyani' was found cleaned leaving behind the shrubs by the roadside.

The steps to the water bodies where the rituals were held was also found dirty with shrubs everywhere. With no option left, the devotees had to take a holy dip in an unclean ambience.

'Swachha Bhanuvara - Hasiru Bhanuvara' campaign held at Ward No.53

Mysuru, Nov.20 (RKB&SR)- Krishnaraja MLA S.A. Ramdas took up 'Swachha Bhanuvara - Hasiru Bhanuvara' (Clean Sunday - Green Sunday) campaign at residential areas of Ward No.53 in city on Sunday last as part of Swachh Bharat Mission.

He took up the campaign with the support of Pourakarmikas, members of various people-friendly organisations and public at various streets of Siddartha Layout, CITB Choultry and surrounding areas in the Ward.

The MLA remembered the contributions of late former Union Minister H.N. Ananth Kumar, who began the 'Clean and Green Sunday' campaign, a first of its kind in Karnataka State and successfully conducted 157 Sunday campaigns.

This campaign was launched with main idea to spread the importance of health and sanitation to people besides planting saplings in the parks to increase greenery. It also aims at sensitising the public to keep their surroundings clean by disposing the garbage generated in their houses and Wards scientifically.

Speaking on the occasion, the MLA said that locations have been identified in various areas of Krishnaraja Assembly segment for massive tree plantation and he had already held one round of discussion with Botany Department of University of Mysore, Horticulture and Social Forestry Department to ensure the supply of saplings.

MLA S.A. Ramdas sweeping the streets at a residential area coming under Ward 53 in city recently as part of 'Swachha Bhanuvara - Hasiru Bhanuvara' campaign.

Envisioned to develop city free from pollution

Stating that he was committed to make the city pollution-free, the MLA said, 10 youths would be selected from every Ward to make this mission successful.

Reacting to the complaints of setting fire to garbage accumulated in the premises of CITB Choultry, Ramdas said he already had telephonic discussion with MUDA Commissioner to avert such activities and also suggested him to come up with programmes to convert these garbage into manure.

The MLA also inspected the under-construction Women Training Bhavan and directed the concerned Zonal Commissioner of Mysore City Corporation (MCC) to expedite the work for public use.

To the public complaints of rain water from Mysuru Zoo and Karanji Lake entering the houses in the low-lying areas of Siddarathanagar, the MLA assured to find a permanent solution after holding a meeting with officials concerned in a month.

Mahouts of Zoos undergo capacity-building training workshop in city

Mysuru, Nov. 20 (MTY & SR)- A five-day National-level training workshop on 'Capacity-Building of Mahouts' organised by Mysuru Zoo in association with Central Zoo Authority (CZA), New Delhi for Mahouts and Kavadis of 10 Zoos across the country began at Mysuru Zoo yesterday.

The workshop will be held till Nov. 23. The training will be conducted for 59 Mahouts in two batches. 26 Mahouts from Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, Telangana and other parts are being provided training in the first batch in elephant behavioural skills, food habits and ways of taking care of elephants. They will be taken to Dubare and other Forest camps as part of Capacity-Building. Experts from Chennai and other parts of the country will provide information about elephant care.

The second batch of training for Mahouts will be held from Feb. 4 to 8, 2019 at the Mysuru Zoo.

Speaking after inaugurating the workshop, Member Secretary of Karnataka State Pollution Control Board and IFS Officer Manoj Kumar extolled the skills of Mahouts who are involved in taking care of elephants at various forest camps, temples and Mutts.

He said that this workshop is organised with the main intention of enhancing their skills in elephant care and elephant management. He added that the Forest Department had organised several such training workshops to enhance the skills of Mahouts as Karnataka is harbouring highest number of wild elephants in the country. Some of the Mahouts were also sent to Indonesia, Sri Lanka, Assam, Uttar Pradesh and other States to hone their skills.

Pointing out that their services were in demand in various combing operations to track and capture rogue elephants, Manoj Kumar said that Mahouts and Kavadis had inherited these skills from their ancestors without going to any schools or educational institutions. Stressing the need for proper care and protection of Mahouts to promote the skills, the IFS Officer wanted Mahouts to develop a close bond with the elephants at various camps and Zoos across the country.

The Mahouts must take special care of elephants in this digital era as otherwise people will upload the pictures of elephants in case they are ill-treated, he said.

Interestingly, Manoj Kumar addressed the participants in six languages — Hindi, English, Kannada, Telugu, Tamil and Malayalam — as Mahouts had arrived from different parts of the country for the workshop.

Karnataka is home to 6,034 elephants, 450 tigers

Speaking on the occasion, Additional Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (Elephant Project) Jagathram said that there are 6,034 elephants, 450 tigers, 250 leopards and other wild animals in Karnataka. He added that the Department is also taking care of these wild animals besides preventing man-animal conflicts, wild animals destroying properties and crops after straying into human habitats.

Additional Principal Chief Conservator of Forests and Member Secretary of Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK) B.P. Ravi said that there are 140 elephants in forest camps, 42 at various temples and Mutts across the State and appreciated the skills of Mahouts who take care of elephants which weigh nearly 5,000 to 6,000 kgs.

He said there are nine Zoological Gardens in Karnataka and added that there were plans to set up Veterinary Hospitals to take care of wild animals at Hampi and Gadag this year.

Training programmes for veterinarians, assistant veterinarians and other staff who are taking care of elephants and other wild animals in Zoo and Forest camps were held at various places.

DCF Sidramappa Chalkapure, Mysuru Zoo Executive Director Ajit Kulkarni, Regional Director of Animal Husbandry, Chennai, Dr. N.S. Manoharan and others were present.

Seerene Sari, Pant Beda... say women cops

Mysuru, Nov. 20 (RK&BCT)- Policewomen across the State are seen sporting the standard khaki uniforms consisting of pants and shirts along with a belt and boots instead of khaki sarees. In Mysuru too, the rule has been implemented and over 80 percent of women Police force are sporting the new dress. However, the implementation of the rule has not gone down well with many women cops who said that sarees are more comfortable than shirts and trousers.

In her order last month, Director General and Inspector General of Police (DG&IG) Neelamani N. Raju had asked the Department to enforce the "uniform rule" that will make it easier for Policewomen to react faster in the event of a crime.

The State Top Cop had justified the rule saying that women will be comfortable and faster wearing standard shirt and pant uniform instead of sarees. The rule has been introduced as some concerns were raised about the ability of women personnel to chase and catch criminals or respond quickly to an escalating security situation when dressed in a saree as compared to the standard uniform.

Implementing the DG's order, ground rules were introduced for Policewomen directing them to keep their long hair tied in a bun, avoid colouring of hair or wearing flowers, kumkum, bangles or makeup. Except for mangalsutra, they cannot wear any chains. Earrings, if worn should be small in size with no dangling parts, said the order.

Policewomen till the rank of Head Constables have been asked to wear round caps while Policewomen above the rank of Assistant Sub-Inspector have to wear the Police 'Peaked cap'.

So far, high-ranking women Police officers wore shirts and pants, Constables continued to wear khaki sarees. Henceforth, sarees will only be permitted on special occasions. These rules have been laid down for Policewomen in terms of their overall appearance to ensure they look professional at all times.

In Mysuru, there are over 250 women Constables including 50 of them in the Women's Police Station and over 10 manning Mysore Palace security. The order implementing the DG's rule has been issued by City Police Commissioner Dr. A. Subramanyeswara Rao. While most of the Policewomen have complied with the order, some women Constables have expressed reservation over the rule.

Speaking to Star of Mysore on condition of anonymity, some women cops said that overall, the uniform rule is good but at times it is uncomfortable. "We have completed many years of service in the Police force and asking us to wear pants and shirts now is not right as we feel awkward in front of our children and relatives," a Constable said.

Another lady Constable said that the State Government must intervene and exempt senior Policewomen from the rule. "Due to age and bodily factors, I have grown fat. It is embarrassing for me to wear a shirt and pant now," she added.

However, an ACP-rank officer told SOM that there will be some relaxation for women who are pregnant. On special occasions as well, the saree will be permitted. However, in all other cases, non-compliance will be dealt with strictly.

WORD OF THE DAY

Palmary

Pronunciation: PAL-muh-ree
Meaning: Outstanding, best.
Origin: It was the ancient Romans who first used palmarius to describe someone or something extraordinary. Palmarius literally translates as "deserving the palm." But what does that mean exactly? Was it inspired by palms of hands coming together in applause? That would be a good guess, but the direct inspiration for palmarius was the palm leaf given to a victor in a sports competition. That other palm—the one on the hand—is loosely related. The Romans thought the palm tree's leaves resembled an outstretched palm of the hand; they thus used their word palma for both meanings, just as we do with palm in English. Now, when we award a noun with the modifier palmary, it signifies that thing as the choicest among possible examples.

Example: The group is probably the palmary example in English of that coterie-and school-verse which distinguished the seventeenth century.

THE ODD WORD

Panurgic

Able or ready to do anything.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Paddle your own canoe

Meaning: Act independently and decide your own fate.

Origin: The figurative meaning of 'paddling one's own canoe' began to be used in the early 19th century. This was what was in mind of the author of The Selangor Journal: Jottings Past and Present, 1807, when reporting the lack of community spirit amongst the coffee planters in Malaysia. If the planters would unite and use their united influence they could start a bank to advance money to deserving young planters... but they won't do it. They let each poor fellow paddle his own canoe, and if he capsizes and stretches out his hand in despair for someone to save him, they won't do it.
Example: She is a strong woman and can paddle her own canoe without having a man in her life.
